CHAPTER XIX.

AN ACT to incorporate the Good Intent Hose Company of Mount Holly.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly ^{Names of corporators.} of the State of New Jersey, That Joseph Gale, James D. Boling, Samuel Carr, George White, Theodore Collins, David W. Carr, and all persons, not exceeding fifty in number, as now are or hereafter shall become associates of the Good Intent Hose Company of Mount Holly, be, and they are hereby constituted and declared to be a body corporate and politic, in fact and in law, by the name of "the Good Intent Hose Company of Mount Holly."

2. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of said company shall not exceed the sum of four thousand dollars, ^{Amount of capital stock.} which shall be solely and exclusively applied to procuring, maintaining, and repairing such hose carriage, hose, reservoirs of water, ladders, buckets, fire hooks, hose houses, and other implements and machines, and to such other incidental expenses as shall to the said company appear best calculated to secure the property of their fellow citizens from injury or destruction by fire.

3. And be it enacted, That the said company shall have ^{Election of officers.} power to elect annually, or oftener if necessary, a president out of their own body, and such other officers and assistants as they shall deem necessary for conducting their affairs, according to their constitution and by-laws; and that the said president shall keep in his custody the common seal of the said company, and, at the expiration of his term
